The surest way to have money five years from now is to invest in thrift stamps.

Every American loses over there for greater efforts at home.

What hope of peace could there be in the world, if the dominating power were the one that rejoices in the destruction of hospitals and the killing of wounded men?

Our forces on the western front are greatly outnumbered. The allies are putting up a remarkable fight in view of the disparity in numbers.

The government recommends storing coal now as its shipment next winter may interfere with more important matters.

Enough gasoline is used in joy riding every day in this country to run all the allied ambulances, trucks and tanks in France.

The American army is certainly cosmopolitan, more nationalities being represented under our flag than in that of any other country.

New York has just sent its first freight to Buffalo over the new $155,000,000 barge canal, and practical utilization of the great inland waterway is assured. The estimated capacity of the canal is 10,000,000 tons of freight annually, the equivalent of 500,000 railroads. Without doubt the barge canal will be of great assistance in getting wartime freight from Lake Erie to the seaboard, and so, too, the strain on railroads in other parts of the country would be correspondingly lessened if our inland waterways program had not been halted years ago by the railway owners.

THE LOOMING FUEL FAMINE.

(Chicago Tribune.)
Next Monday begins what is officially declared to be "Coal Week." The State Council of Defense urges every consumer to place his order for all the coal he will need next winter during that period.

The advice is good. The consumer who does not place his order at once is certain to face a delay of months in the delivery of his fuel. He is likely to find the winter coming on with his coal bin empty and a fuel famine ahead of him.

One consumer who ordered his supply last week was informed by the largest distributor in the northern suburb in which he lives that there were already 3,000 orders ahead of his. It was probable, the dealer said, that by Sept. 1 he would be able to deliver the order, but he could guarantee nothing.

It is wise to urge every consumer to order his coal immediately. It is wise to urge and to enforce every possible measure of fuel conservation. They will all be bitterly needed. But it is also wise and necessary to point out that the whole blame for the fuel famine which is now already looming must be laid at the door of the United States railroad administration.

A fuel famine is almost certainly coming because not enough coal is being dug to supply the needs of the country during the coming year. The coal is not being dug because the railroad administration does not send to the mines enough empty coal cars to haul it away. There are other causes which contribute to the loss of production, but they are minor. Most of them grow directly out of the shortage of coal cars at the mines.

John P. White, former president of the United Coal Miners' union, now labor adviser for Fuel Administrator Garfield, says 200,000 members of his organization are eager to work full time. Sundays, and holidays, to get out the coal. Indorsed by leading coal mine operators, White declares that the want of cars to haul coal is keeping thousands of miners idle nearly half the time in most of the western and southwestern coal fields.

The 80,000 miners of Illinois alone, says White, who mined only 60,000,000 tons of coal last year, can dig 150,000,000 tons this year and are anxious to do it. They cannot get the cars to haul the coal.

If there is a disastrous coal famine next winter the public may as well get it clear now that it will be caused by the failure of the railroad administration to furnish the necessary coal cars this spring and summer.

There will be such a coal famine is clearly indicated by the fact that the weekly production of coal so far this year has fallen a million tons a week behind the estimated requirements of the country.

Meantime the man is a fool who does not order at once all the coal he will need for the next year. Even if it is necessary to borrow the money to pay the bill, he can find no better investment.

Get your coal in now, or get ready to freeze next winter.

RIPPLING RHYMS

THE WOODS FULL.

If there's a neighbor you dislike, don't let him make you sore; don't think about him while you hike to do the useful chore. Forget him and his evil ways as you weave to and fro; the woods are full of worthy jays whom it is good to know. If some one shows a tightwad soul when war demands are made, and clings the "I won't do it," I would not be dismayed. The country will not go to smash because of skintight lads, who glue their fingers to their cash, and hide their surplus leads. The woods are full of loyal gents who always have the price, when asked to dig up plunk or cents, or make some sacrifice. The woods are full of boys who say, "What can a fellow do, to help our soldiers far away or split a Teut in two?" Don't think that treason's growing rank, that every man is getting ready to face a tank. The woods are full of boys who say, "Don't think our institutions punk, our bulwarks bound to fall, because some fellow in Pohunk was ridden on a rail. The woods are full of delegates who make it plain, I wist, that in these brow United States great hearts and souls exist. Our eagles soar on noble wings, and do their martial stunt, but we won't see these regal things, if we for buzzards hunt."

Excellent musical numbers were given during the evening by the Glee club. The first number was "Songs My Mother Taught Me." Following the orations by the class the club sang "Snowflakes," the closing number was "When the Roses Bloom." After the presentation of diplomas the audience stood and sang "The Star Spangled Banner."

Doctor McCabe was introduced by Rev. Father Formaz who referred to him as being not only an orator but a man endowed with much common sense.

A few of Doctor McCabe's thoughts are given.

Education Best Weapon.

Speaking to the graduates he said: "You graduates, three in number are going into the world with the best weapon that could be given you to meet with and fight the battle of life, a splendid, solid Catholic education."

Through the providence of God you have come to the place where you have the right to demand the parchment to enable you to go out into the world with education of the highest type. The demands of today are for individual self and personal sacrifice.

"Do not go out as followers after the rabble but as leaders. You will be recreant to your responsibilities if you do not use what you have received here for the betterment of mankind. Education is given by God not to use for self but for the betterment of humanity."

"No matter what profession or calling you may choose, the noblest thing for man or woman to do is to fulfill God's law in every detail. In this and you will be received into the kingdom and be crowned with eternal happiness."

Speaking to the audience Father McCabe said, "This is a very happy occasion for the graduates and for all others interested. What is taking place here this evening is taking place in Catholic universities and schools throughout the whole world. Young men and women are being sent out into the life of the world."

"Catholic education," said the speaker, "is not recognized by the worldly wise. We do not expect them to recognize it. But it is being recognized in the work of the world. All that we ask and what we demand, is our rights."

First the Great Teacher.

Father McCabe spoke of Christ as the great teacher. He called his followers about him and taught them to teach and then told them to go forth into the world and teach.

"The church began the work of teaching under great difficulties," said the speaker. "Great obstacles were placed in the way by Pagan Rome which fought the church for four centuries. To all its persecution the church stood forward as the great liberator of mankind and as the representative of the world's greatest teacher."

"The churches were established throughout the world and with the churches came the schools. Heresy threatened the teaching of the faith but the church progressed despite obstacles until the 16th century when came the perfection of education."

"Then came the Renaissance tearing down much that the church had built up in eight or nine centuries. Then came the days of Luther and man made religion. In the teachings of the Catholic faith is not found the 'divine right of kings' that came with the revolutionists."

"A Catholic education gives one the fundamental principles. If these principles are well founded and you cannot solve your problems the fault is with you and not with the system."

The other system gives you a new set of principles and you are as much in a grasp and look as

WILL PUBLISH DIRECTORY

R. W. Richmond, of the L. Leshnick Directory Co. is in the city arranging the preliminary for the new directory which will be published this fall.

The Leshnick Directory Co. has bought the rights and interests of the Pantagraph Printing and Stationery Co., and Charles M. Samson of Bloomington, Ill., and will give the people of Jacksonville an up to date directory with many new features.

The Leshnick Directory Co. control over thirty directories in Illinois beside eighteen in Wisconsin and other states.

WORD FROM DONALD JOY

Donald Joy writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Joy, that he is well and in excellent spirits. Speaking of an acquaintance he asked when the latter would leave and said by all means he better enlist and not wait for the draft as he would have a far better chance in many ways if he did so.

FAITH IN GOD GREAT NEED OF WORLD TODAY

Dr. F. X. McCabe, in Commencement Address at Mount College, Said World Needed New Consecration to God—Three Graces Unites Given Diplomas—Gratuities of Class Were of High Order.

"Get down on your bunkers and say, 'I believe in God.' That was the apt manner in which the Very Reverend Doctor F. X. McCabe, president of Mount College, expressed his belief that the crying need of the world today is a stronger faith in the teachings of Jesus Christ."

Father McCabe delivered the commencement address to the graduating class of Mount College in a rout college auditorium Sunday evening before a large audience. Dr. McCabe is not only a scholar but an orator of great ability and he presented his exposition of the needs of the world in a clear and concise manner.

Three graduates composed the class at Mount this year, Frances Veronica Tuttle, Thomas Joseph Walsh and Helen Louise Butler. In presenting the diplomas Father F. X. McCabe took occasion to compliment them on the work they had done.

Class Remarkable One.

Father McCabe said that the class was the most remarkable that had ever graduated from the college. Every one of the members had done work during their college course to earn money to enable them to finish their school work. Father McCabe also presented his financial report of the college for the year.

Excellent musical numbers were given during the evening by the Glee club. The first number was "Songs My Mother Taught Me." Following the orations by the class the club sang "Snowflakes," the closing number was "When the Roses Bloom." terms combatants and non-combatants are included first, all those who form part of the actual forces of a belligerent state, and secondly all those who are actually engaged in promoting the war.

To all these violence may be done to the extent that it is lawful to kill all soldiers in uniform or soldiers called to arms; also all who perform auxiliary services, such as workers on arms and munitions, persons connected with transport, persons who are canvassing a Liberty Loan campaign but not persons who have subscribed to the loan as the killing of these persons would in no way promote one's purpose in war.

The non-combatants, include those who are not engaged in actual aggression, including prisoners of war who must be treated as non-combatants, as to kill them is not an act of defense and, therefore, the State cannot lawfully put them to death.

Whether wars will ever be wholly eliminated as development proceeds, and society becomes more and more consolidated and unified, it would be impossible to say; whether peaceful arbitration or some other method more suitable than war for determining the issues of public justice, will ever become the universally accepted substitute for war it would be idle to discuss. But, certainly, to that end the world in time of peace should direct its best and most untiring efforts. But with time it becomes evident that the chancelleries of the world are unable to devise some more human method for the settling of international disputes than that method of which the brute animals are the finished exponents, the method, namely, of tooth and claw, of blood and slaughter, of endless pain and misery, then it is for the peoples themselves, on whom the burden and horrors of war fall most heavily and assuredly, to approach the problem to devise a better method, and by every constitutional means at their disposal to see that it is accepted by the Governments of the world.

The Ideals of Democracy.

The United States have had many advantageous circumstances to thank for their present ascendancy in the world's affairs; isolation from military pressure for a century and a quarter; a vast virgin continent; plenty of land, freedom from titles and social precedents, common schools and, predominating over all, a real democratic spirit

HUNS BRING WARFARE TO U. S. SHORES

NINE VESSELS SUNK BY GERMAN RAIDERS

Blocked Off Troop Ships By Convoy Craft Enemy U Boats Turn Against Defenseless Coasters

(By Associated Press)

BULLETIN

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 3.—The Steamer Texel was sunk by a German submarine Sunday afternoon sixty miles off the coast. The crew of 36 men landed here tonight.

BULLETIN

NEW YORK, June 3.—Forty-eight survivors of vessels sunk by German U-boats, brought to port today by a coastwise steamship were landed tonight. About half of them had been prisoners for several days aboard the submarines.

BULLETIN

NEW YORK, June 3.—Three lifeboats filled with persons and other lifeboats apparently empty were seen afloat 35 miles off Beach Haven, N. J., this afternoon by a government airplane. Coast guard cutters have gone to the rescue. Beach Haven is about 20 miles south of Barnegat, N. J.

BULLETIN

AN ATLANTIC PORT, June 3.—Fifteen survivors of three vessels sunk by German submarines off the Atlantic coast and held prisoner for a time on a U-boat reached here late today on an American Steamship to which they had been transferred by the submarine.

The naval authorities here took charge of the men, members of the crews of two schooners and an oil tanker. The submarine did not attempt to sink the steamship, a coastwise liner, on which the survivors arrived here.

BULLETIN

NORFOLK, Va., June 3.—Naval officials here said tonight their reports indicated five German submarines had been operating along the Atlantic coast and that two had been sighted off the Virginia capes.

Rear-Admiral Feltcher, commandant of the Norfolk Navy Yard said two U-boats had been sighted off the Virginia Capes and Rear-Admiral McLean, commandant of the fifth naval district said in addition to these two others were reported off the coast of New Jersey and one off the coast of North Carolina. Neither officer had been advised of any engagements between American warships and the U-boats.

NEW YORK, June 3.—Nine American vessels were known tonight to have been sunk by German submarines off the North Atlantic coast since May 25.

The largest to fall prey to the raiders, which are seeking to prevent the sailing of transports with troops for the battle fields of France, was the New York and Porto Rico liner Carolina of 8,000 tons which was attacked Sunday night about 125 miles southeast of Sandy Hook. The fate of her 200 passengers and crew of 130 who took to the boats when shells began to fall about the vessel, was unknown late tonight, but there was hope they had been picked up by some passing ships or would reach shore in the small boats. Not a life was lost in the sinking of the other ships according to late reports tonight. Besides the California the known victims of the U-boats are the Atlantic Refining company Tanker, Herbert L. Pratt, the Steamship Winnie Connie of 1800 tons and six schooners. The largest of the schooners were the Hauptaug, a new ship of 1,000 tons, and the Edward H. Cole. The others are the Jacob M. Haskell of Boston; Isabel B. Wiley, Boston; Hattie Dunn, Thomaston, Maine and Samuel W. Hathaway. The crews of these eight vessels have been landed at Atlantic ports.

Reports brought ashore by the survivors indicated that the Winnie Connie and nearly all the schooners were sunk by the same U-boat which had been lurking in the path of shipping off the New Jersey coast and the Delaware Capes since late last month. The stories told by the skippers of the schooners indicated that the commander of the submersible was unusually humane for a German submarine officer. In no instance, so far as known was a lifeboat shelled and in all cases reported the crews were given opportunity to escape or were taken aboard the submarine where some of them were kept prisoner for eight days before they were turned adrift to be picked up by a passing vessel.

Passenger List Not Available

The passenger list of the Carolina was not available here, but it was known that among those on board were several American graduates of the officers' training school conducted on the island. Among the number was Lieutenant Robert J. Boyd, who was on his way to his home in Syracuse to attend the burial of his mother.

The Savannah Line officials said they were without confirmation of reports that the City of Columbus, a vessel of 5,433 gross tons, had been attacked. She left Savannah Friday under command of Captain Diehl and was due in Boston tomorrow. She was a sister ship of the City of Athens sunk off the Delaware coast last month in collision with a French warship with heavy loss of life.

Rescue Fifteen Survivors.—An Atlantic Port, June 3.—The Atlantic coast and some fifteen survivors of three vessels whom were reported to have been

BULLETINS

DUBLIN, June 3.—By the Associated Press.—The Lord Lieutenant issued a proclamation tonight asking for 50,000 voluntary recruits, and thereafter 2,000 to 3,000 monthly to maintain the Irish divisions.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Loss of the naval motor launch Ozark with one member of her crew, Charles E. Richards, fireman of Chipley, Fla., in a heavy sea off the coast May 12 was announced today by the navy department.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, June 3.—Captain J. LeRoy Austin, was found dead in his quarters at Camp Travis Sunday afternoon. There was a bullet hole thru the head and an army revolver nearby.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The federal child labor law of 1916 forbidding interstate shipment of products of Child Labor was today declared unconstitutional and invalid by the supreme court.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Three officers and twenty three enlisted men of the navy were reported missing today from the torpedoed American transport President Lincoln. One officer was captured by the submarine.

Capture U-Boat.—An Atlantic Port, June 3.—Hovers for days over the seas over which the Tanker William Rockefeller had been sunk by a German submarine a flotilla of destroyers and two seaplanes finally succeeded in capturing the U-boat according to naval officers. Survivors of the disaster who landed here today.

The sea for miles about the spot where the fatal blow struck the tanker was closely watched by destroyers and their accompanying seaplanes for any sign of the U-boat speeding from the scene of its encounter. No trace of the submersible evidently was seen for the boats stayed in the neighborhood and waited for the U-boat to make its appearance. At last the submersible which had stayed below the surface so long that its air tanks had become exhausted, rose to the surface and was netted.

Coast Defense Adequate.—Washington, June 3.—Members of the coast naval committee were assured by Secretary Daniels today that Atlantic coast defenses against submarines were adequate and it would be unnecessary to recall vessels from the war zone to deal with submarines on this side. The secretary said the purpose of the Germans evidently was to frighten the American people into demanding the return of some of their naval forces now abroad.

Mr. Daniels said it now appeared that the Schooner Edna, found bottom-up several days ago and towed into Lewes, Delaware also was a submarine victim. Her crew was rescued and landed at New York. Secretary Daniels said that nothing further had been heard from the Steamship Carolina, carrying 220 passengers sent her radio distress call Sunday afternoon saying that she was being shelled by a submarine.

The sinking of six vessels by the submarine had been definitely established by the navy, Mr. Daniels announced. Besides the Pratt and Herbert, the vessels sent down were the Schooners Jacob M. Haskell, Isabel B. Wiley, Hattie Dunn and Edward H. Cole, all previously reported in news despatches.

The crews of all the vessels were saved except the one man from the Pratt.

No Lives Are Lost.—Washington, June 3.—No lives were lost when the Steamer Herbert L. Pratt sank off the New Jersey coast Sunday afternoon. An account of the attack given the navy department by the master of the ship over the telephone from Lewes, said all the crew was rescued and removed from the ship's record of U-boat operations off the coast the one human victim.

The master's story as given out by the navy department follows: The Pratt was torpedoed at 2:35 p. m. today; position about one mile southeast of Overfalls Light. After being hit she was headed for the beach and ran aground in seven fathoms of water with stern well out of the water. She apparently lost no oil. Didn't see submarine at time of sinking. Several scout patrol boats came to the rescue and removed the crew. No one was injured.

In response to questions the master said he saw the wake of the submarine.

The Pratt cleared from Tuxpan, Mexico, on May 25 for Philadelphia and was loaded with crude oil.

See Admission of Failure.—Washington, June 3.—Germany at last has brought her submarine warfare to the shores of the United States, apparently in a forlorn hope of striking telling blows on this side of the Atlantic and of drawing home some of the American naval forces from the war zones where the U-boat menace is being slowly but surely strangled to death.

On the attack upon coasting vessels in sight of the coast of New Jersey reported today the navy officials see a dramatic admission from Germany that the submarine has failed. American armed power is rolling overseas in ever-increasing force despite the utmost efforts of the undersea pirates off the coasts of Europe. Now the raiders have

AMERICANS AID IN MANNING ANTI AIRCRAFT GUNS

Work With French To Protect Hospitals from Enemy Bombers

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN PICARDY, June 3.—By the Associated Press.—The Americans last night aided the French for the first time in manning anti-aircraft guns in villages in Picardy and kept up a terrific barrage when enemy aircraft again attempted to bomb hospitals and peaceful homes of civilians. One German airplane was reported to have been brought down in the rear of the American lines.

Bombs were dropped again near several hospitals. The enemy also continued to shell villages in which American sick and wounded were lying. The enemy artillery and machine guns are active around Cantigny but all efforts to capture the village have been frustrated.

An enemy patrol was fired on early this morning by an American patrol. The German was killed and the body brought in. The American artillery continued to harass the enemy, a fire was observed in Montdidier.

Enemy aircraft have been particularly active in this sector. They have done no military damage but continue nightly raids on villages behind the lines, bombing promiscuously. Fortunately none of the bombs have dropped in fields.

U. S. Plane Fails To Return.—Washington, June 3.—Air raids in which one enemy machine was brought down and one American plane failed to return were reported in tonight's communiqué from the American expeditionary headquarters in France.

The statement dated today, follows: "Patrolling was active in Picardy and in Lorraine. Artillery fighting occurred in Lorraine and in the Vosges. At a number of points there were air raids. In these combats our aviators shot down a hostile machine. One of our planes is missing."

THRIFT STAMP MEETING AT MT. ZION SCHOOL.—A meeting in the interest of the War Savings stamp campaign was held at Mt. Zion school Monday evening. The speakers were Mr. Marshall Miller, Judge E. P. Brockhouse, Judge W. E. Thomson of this city and Dr. G. W. Miller of Woodson. The sale of stamps totaled $1,200 with purchases ranging from $5 up to $100.

WILL MEET TODAY.—The Jacksonville W. C. T. U. will meet this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Blunt, 607 South Prairie street. There will be special prayer service for the winning of the war in compliance with the recent proclamation of President Wilson. All women whether members of the W. C. T. U. or not are invited to be present at the meeting.

MEETING POSTPONED.—The meeting of the board of the Old People's home, announced for Tuesday, has been postponed until Thursday. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance of the members on that date.

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

Germany's sea wolves—the submarines which have caused so much devastation during the war—are preying on commerce in the Atlantic Ocean just off the shores of the United States. They are known to have sunk at least seven vessels, only a short distance out of sight of land off the southern New Jersey shore.

It is feared that still other vessels have been sent to the bottom by the marauders, the movements of which have been reported at various times during the last fortnight by ships coming in to port from southern waters. Thus far only one life is known to have been lost in the sinkings. A majority of the vessels were sunk with bombs after their crews had been forced to take to the ship's boats.

Altho it cannot be said that the Germans in their new offensive have been definitely stopped, there is, nevertheless, a marked diminution in the speed with which they started out, and their gains since Saturday have been relatively small when compared with those of previous days. And, according to the accounts of unofficial observers, wherever they have been able since the stiffening of the allied lines to attain new positions an exorbitant price in lives has been exacted from them. So great have been the casualties suffered that the Prussian guards division, the pride of the German crown prince—is declared to have been withdrawn from the battle.

Particularly hard fighting again has been in progress between Soissons and Chateau-Thierry, where the Germans are endeavoring to push further forward toward Paris but not alone have the French troops almost everywhere stood the onslaught but on some sectors themselves have taken the initiative and gained ground. As a whole the situation along this line is relatively unchanged.

The German war office at last has admitted that the allied line in the west has been reinforced by fresh units, but it asserts that they have not been able to hold the positions to which they were assigned. Nevertheless, the fact is patent from observation of the war maps that almost everywhere in this region the German line for the moment at least is being held.

From Chateau-Thierry eastward along the Marne and thence to Rheims the situation is virtually unchanged from that of Sunday. The enemy now holds the northern bank of the Marne for a distance of about fifteen miles but as yet he has made no serious endeavor to cross the stream.

SAFELY OVERSEAS.—Mrs. Ellen Monroe of this city has received word that her son, Clarence Monroe, has arrived safely overseas. Clarence is with a national army artillery unit.

WEATHER INDICATIONS AND TEMPERATURES.—Illinois: Generally fair Tuesday and Wednesday, except showers in extreme north Tuesday; somewhat cooler Wednesday northeast.

Temperatures.—The current maximum and minimum temperatures as recorded Monday were: Jacksonville, Ill. 74 87 57; Boston 78 86 70; Buffalo 64 64 54; New York 78 84 72; New Orleans 88 90 72; Chicago 73 79 66; Detroit 76 84 58; Omaha 70 70 68; Minneapolis 72 73 54; Helena 66 66 44; San Francisco 60 66 50; Jacksonville, Fla. 84 86 74.

FRENCH CHECK ENEMY ADVANCE

Report Most Hopeful Since Beginning of Battle—Franco-British Troops Maintain Gains North of Champlatt.

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, June 3.—"Tonight's report is the most hopeful since the beginning of the battle; for the first time since last Monday it can be said that the enemy gained no ground during the day," says Reuter's correspondent with French quarters in France.

Hold Germans West of Soissons

PARIS, June 3.—The battle in France was resumed with great intensity during the night and the course of the day, according to the war office announcement this evening. The Germans with fresh troops attacked between the Oise and the Ourcq with redoubled violence.

"The Germans have been checked west of Soissons," the statement says. "We recaptured Faverolles. In the region south of Ville-en-Tardenois, the Franco-British troops maintained all their gains north of Champlatt."

"For the fifth time we recaptured Mount Hoesy. All the enemy's attempts between the Oise and the Aisne, notably north of Mouin-Sous-Touvent and Vingre failed."

"Between the Aisne and the Ourcq the Germans made desperate efforts to penetrate the Villers-Cotterets forest from the north and east. Our troops heroically sustained the shock of the enemy attacks and broke their advance inflicting sanguinary losses on them."

French Repulse Hostile Raids

LONDON, June 3.—Field Marshal Haig's report tonight reads: "Hostile raids were repulsed during the night by French troops east of Bailleul."

"The numbers of prisoners captured by us in last night's successful operations southeast of Strazeele is 288. We also captured a German anti-tank gun, in addition to 30 machine guns and several trench mortars. On the remainder of the British front there is nothing of special interest to report."

On West Flank of Aisne Salient

LONDON, June 3.—British Admiralty per Wireless Press.—The military correspondent of the British wireless service writes as follows concerning the operations on the western front:

"The Germans still show their greatest pressure on the western flank of the Aisne salient, their efforts yesterday being again on the front between Soissons and Chateau-Thierry. Their progress however, has not been very marked and their advances have been more in the nature of local movements."

"During the last 48 hours, too, the resistance has been of a severe and punishing nature. All the advances have been met by the hardest fighting and beyond the local actions referred to were checked by the allies."

"The situation cannot yet be said to have reached a position of stability but the evidence suggests that the first impulse of the offensive which has carried the Germans forward so far is coming to an end and that they now must enter upon the phase of the fighting in which the full cost will have to be paid for every mile of progress."

"In the advances on the Somme and the Lys the speed of the attacks was checked and the great offensive movements forced to expend themselves in expensive and, on the whole useless local encounters as the allied reserves came more and more into action and the Germans advanced farther and farther from their lines of supply."

Claim Fresh Progress.—BERLIN, June 3.—via London. —The evening official report from headquarters says: "South and west of Soissons we have made fresh progress. There were French counter-attacks on both sides of the Ourcq river."

Take Place in Line.—BERLIN, June 3.—via London. —"Fresh French units have taken their place in the battle line according to the official communication from general headquarters today. The Germans claim that these reinforcements have not been able to hold the positions assigned to them."

Artillery Active.—BERLIN, June 3.—via London. —"The artillery activity revived at intervals," says the report from general headquarters today. "Local attacks west of Bailleul and north of the Lys were repulsed."

"To the north of the Aisne they have tried in vain to hold the positions which had been assigned to them. In hard trench fighting we drove them back toward Moulins-Sous-Touvent, St. Christophe and Vingre."

"Chaudun, southwest of Soissons, has been captured. In an attack we pushed forward across the Savieres territory as far as the eastern border of the woods around Villers-Cotterets. South of the Ourcq the enemy delivered violent counter-attacks. They were repulsed with sanguinary losses. We captured Boin, beyond Couchamps and Monthiers, and took the heights to the west of Chateau-Thierry."

"On the Marne between the Marne and Rheims, the situation is unchanged."

MEN LAUD DR. HARKER
FOR USEFUL YEARS

Fellowship Meeting Sunday Night
for College President Honoring
Out Twenty Five Years of Service.

A platform fellowship meeting was held at Grace church Sunday night honoring Dr. Joseph R. Harker, who is just closing his twenty fifth year as president of Illinois Woman's college. Services were abandoned in a number of city churches so that pastors and members of the churches might attend. Dr. F. H. Madden pastor of Grace church, opened the session with several announcements and then in a fitting way introduced Mayor H. J. Rodgers to preside. Dr. Madden said the city was fortunate, indeed, in having as its chief executive officer a man who is a firm believer in Christianity and the scripture.

Mayor Rodgers referred to the fact that he had known Dr. Harker for nearly forty years, for he was in Waverly when Dr. Harker, a young school teacher at that time, reached Waverly to take charge of the high school. The speaker said that he had known something of Dr. Harker ever since that time, for the college president who was being honored at that meeting had always lived plainly and simply and always had his face set toward the front, earnestly purposing to carry into effect some good work.

Varying View Points. Before the chairman was introduced the invocation was offered by Rev. R. B. Wilson, pastor of State Street Presbyterian church, and the scripture lesson was read by Rev. J. F. Langton, rector of Trinity Episcopal church. The quartet was heard in an excellent musical number. Laymen and ministers who subsequently took part in the service were Edgar E. Crabtree, Horace H. Bancroft, President C. H. Rammelkamp of Illinois college, John J. Reeve, Rev. E. L. Pletcher, Rev. M. L. Pontius. Those who had arranged the program desired to have the life and work of Dr. Harker presented from varying viewpoints. The speakers knew their subjects well and these men all voiced the keenest appreciation of President Harker's strength and personality, considered from entirely different angles but all equally important.

Called First Citizen. Mr. Crabtree began by saying that when it was true that Dr. Harker had led a simple life, then he had also led a very full life from a business standpoint. The speaker referred to President Harker as Jacksonville's foremost citizen because he believed that no one else in Jacksonville had risen from such humble circumstances to a place of such prominence and strength. He pictured the lad who quit school at the age of ten because of the need to aid in earning the family living, as developing later into a great educator. Dr. Harker worked as a boy in a mine with his father in England. Even in those days his rudimentary temperament was in evidence. Dr. Harker worked as a boy in a mine with his father in England. Even in those days his rudimentary temperament was in evidence.

Mr. Pontius referred to it as a great sermon because various members of his own church had, week after week, repeated thoughts from that sermon and referred to its strength and helpfulness. Mr. Pontius bore testimony to the fact that President Harker seeks to have the atmosphere of the college which tends not toward denationalism but toward Christian living. So the speaker said that it was indeed a pleasure for him to join in a service expressive of the love, respect, admiration and honor in which President Harker is held in this his home community.

Here is told how to prepare an invigorating lemon lotion which can be used to bring back to any skin the sweet freshness of which it has been robbed by the heat, atmosphere, condensation, dust, and other causes. Thus, Wind-buff, roughness, tan and redness are washed off and those golden lines of care of age are softened away.

The pulp of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of alcohol, white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a quart of the ordinary cold cream. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so as to get out all seeds. Then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the skin softener, smoother and beautifier.

Just try it. Get three ounces of alcohol from any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make a fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands, and see for yourself—adv.

Dr. O. H. Rammelkamp, president of Illinois college, said that it was both a privilege and an honor to be present and speak a few words of appreciation of a prominent alumnus of Illinois college as is Dr. Harker. He said that R. W. Patterson of Lake Forest, W. S. Curtis and New Bateman of Knox college, Edward A. Tanner of Illinois college and Dr. Harker of Illinois Woman's college constitute a group of five illustrious college presidents that Illinois college has produced and in that group that President Harker took high place. Mention was made too, that Rev. M. R. Laird, a more recent graduate of Illinois college, has just been chosen as president of Lincoln college.

Dr. Harker, Rammelkamp said, was a man of great personality and an educator but as a business man, a citizen and a friend. Some special reference was made to President Harker's strength as a business man and as a useful member of the community. Altogether Dr. Rammelkamp made it plain to his hearers that he and Illinois college have a high regard for the work and spirit of President Harker.

Dr. Harker, who was in the audience, spoke for a few moments with evident feeling. He declared that the reference made to his early life and to educational work in which he had engaged after coming to this country, had taken him back in memory many years, that he had lived over again the scenes of his childhood and young manhood as he had not done for many a day. He expressed the keenest appreciation of the honor paid him by the various speakers. He said that whatever of success had come to him was due in very large measure to the faithful, encouraging assistance given by Mrs. Harker. He said he was thankful to heaven first of all for his Christian parents, who the humble as to means, were God's noblemen. He was thankful secondly that he came from England to this country and then for the wife that was given to him as an aid in the work in after years. Dr. Harker declared too, that he counted himself most fortunate in having come to this city of Jacksonville, with its splendid religious and educational atmosphere and the people in it, who had so loyally supported him in his work throughout the years.

After the singing of a hymn by the audience, Rev. J. F. Langton pronounced the benediction.

Dr. Harker, who was in the audience, spoke for a few moments with evident feeling. He declared that the reference made to his early life and to educational work in which he had engaged after coming to this country, had taken him back in memory many years, that he had lived over again the scenes of his childhood and young manhood as he had not done for many a day. He expressed the keenest appreciation of the honor paid him by the various speakers. He said that whatever of success had come to him was due in very large measure to the faithful, encouraging assistance given by Mrs. Harker. He said he was thankful to heaven first of all for his Christian parents, who the humble as to means, were God's noblemen. He was thankful secondly that he came from England to this country and then for the wife that was given to him as an aid in the work in after years. MEN LAUD DR. HARKER

Fellowship Meeting Sunday Night
for College President Rounding
Out Twenty Five Years of Service.

A platform fellowship meeting was held at Grace church Sunday night honoring Dr. Joseph R. Harker, who is just closing his twenty fifth year as president of Illinois Woman's college. Services were abandoned in a number of city churches so that pastors and members of the churches might attend. Dr. F. B. Madden pastor of Grace church, opened the session with several announcements and then in a fitting way introduced Mayor H. L. Rodgers to preside. Dr. Madden said the city was fortunate, indeed, in having as its chief executive officer a man who is a firm believer in Christianity and the scripture.

Mayor Rodgers referred to the fact that he had known Dr. Harker for nearly forty years, for he was in Waverly when Dr. Harker was a young school teacher at that time, reached Waverly to take charge of the high school. The speaker said that he had known something of Dr. Harker ever since that time, for the college president who was being honored at that meeting had always lived plainly and simply and always had his face set toward the front, earnestly purposing to carry into effect some good work.

Varying View Points.
Before the invocation was introduced the invocation was offered by Rev. R. B. Wilson, pastor of State Street Presbyterian church, and the scripture lesson was read by Rev. J. F. Langton, rector of Trinity Episcopal church. The quartet was heard in an excellent musical number. Laymen and ministers who subsequently took part in the service were Edgar E. Crabtree, Horace H. Bancroft, President C. H. Rammelkamp of Illinois college, John J. Reeve, Rev. E. L. Fletcher, Rev. M. L. Pontius. The speaker who arranged the program desired to have the life and work of Dr. Harker presented from varying viewpoints. The speakers knew their subjects well and these men all voiced the keenest appreciation of President Harker's strength and personality, considered from entirely different angles, but all equally important.

Called First Citizen.
Mr. Crabtree began by saying that while it was true that Dr. Harker had led a simple life, that he had also led a very fast life from a business standpoint. The speaker referred to President Harker as Jacksonville's foremost citizen because he believed that no one else in Jacksonville had risen from such humble circumstances to a place of such prominence and strength. He pictured the lad who quit school at the age of ten because of the need to aid in earning the family living, as developing later into a great educator.

Dr. Harker worked as a boy in a mine with his father in England. Even in those days his studious temperament was in evidence, for he spent his spare time in the studying of such books as came into his hands. He came to this country with his parents as a lad eighteen years of age and for a time was a miner at Duquoin. Subsequently he began teaching with one success after another until he became president of Illinois Woman's college, and the public is well aware of the splendid development there during his twenty five years of labor.

Mr. Crabtree, who has been associated with Dr. Harker for a number of years, because of his membership in the executive committee of the college trustees, declared that the president in his estimation is a man of most exceptional judgment. The speaker said that Dr. Harker has made money and has given most of it to the college. He expressed the view that in some other line of business President Harker would have made a vast sum of money for himself.

Horace H. Bancroft was asked to speak on the subject of Dr. Harker as a teacher and friend. Mr. Bancroft referred to his own boyhood days when he was a pupil under Dr. Harker in Whippoor Academy. He mentioned the fact that President Harker in those days not only was a remarkable teacher in the classroom, but that his interest in the boys continued outside the school hours. He sought to lead them all into the right paths of both thinking and doing, and his admonition was by both precept and example. The speaker referred to the success which had attended Dr. Harker's work thru all the years and closed by expressing his thankfulness that he had been able to have Dr. Harker as a teacher and his pride in being accounted as one of the friends of the president.

Dr. Rammelkamp's Appreciation.
Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp, president of Illinois college, said that it was both a privilege and an honor to be present and speak a few words of appreciation of so prominent an alumnus of Illinois college as Dr. Harker. He said that R. W. Patterson of Lake Forest, W. S. Curtis and Newton Bateman of Knox college, Edward A. Tanner of Illinois college and Dr. Harker of Illinois Woman's college constitute a group of five illustrious college presidents that Illinois college has produced and in that group that President Harker took high place. Mention was made too, that Rev. M. R. Laird, a more recent graduate of Illinois college, has just been chosen as president of Lincoln college.

Then President Rammelkamp said that he owed a personal debt to President Harker because the friendly but spirited rivalry between the two institutions had tended to increase his own alertness. The speaker then went on to say that in many things the two institutions were not rivals—that their lines of work diverge and that there is the amplest room for the useful activity of both. He unstintingly praised President Harker for his work, not only as an educator but as a business man, a citizen and a friend. Some special reference was made to President Harker's strength as a business man and as a useful member of the community. Altogether Dr. Rammelkamp made it plain to his hearers that he and Illinois college have a high regard for the work and spirit of President Harker.

Unselfish Citizenship.
To John J. Reeve was given the thought of considering President Harker as a citizen. The speaker referred to his own early interest in the Woman's college because his own mother had been a student there many years ago. Later on his own daughter was a pupil there and the speaker said that he had three granddaughters whom he had no doubt would some day be enrolled. The best citizen, Mr. Reeve said, is the man who is the greatest benefactor to his community, not only the development of business but by the time and thought that he gives to community problems. Measured by this standard Dr. Harker is indeed a strong and useful citizen, for he has given most generously of his time and thought to affairs of general city interest. Mr. Reeve suggested that most people have in the past been too selfish in matters of citizenship, but that world affairs are now so shaping themselves that higher ideals of sacrifice in public service are likely to be the result.

Rev. E. L. Fletcher considered Dr. Harker as a Methodist. He said that Charles Wesley founded the Methodist church but that Dr. Harker found it and in many ways he had been an honor to the church. At various times Dr. Harker has been a member of the general M. E. conference and today he has high place in the countenance of the church. His suggestions in a business way have been most helpful and far-reaching and the speaker said that it was the Harker resolution which paved the way for the jubilee campaign, which has already raised over $27,000,000 for the Methodist church. President Harker's activity in Methodism, the speaker said, constitutes a great legacy to the church.

Not Limited Usefulness.
Rev. M. L. Pontius, pastor of Central Christian church, suggested that some men are like mountains in their characters—that one must stand far away from them and so view them to appreciate their greatness. But with Dr. Harker an idea of his greatness comes by close and personal contact. He said that in the average city and community there are a few epoch making souls, and that those familiar with Dr. Harker's life and work would certainly so class him. The speaker said that he was glad that in this day and in such a gathering that no lines of denomination—no political demarcation—would prevent him from paying honor where honor is due. Dr. Harker's life, he said, had filled a great place in his own church and denomination, but it had not stopped there and had reached far over the boundaries into a field of other churches. He mentioned that not long since President Harker occupied the pulpit of Central Christian church and preached a great sermon.

Mr. Pontius referred to it as a great sermon because various members of his own church had, week after week, repeated thoughts from that sermon and referred to its strength and helpfulness. Mr. Pontius bore testimony to the fact that President Harker seeks to have the atmosphere at the college which tends not toward denominationalism but toward Christian living. So the speaker said that it was indeed a pleasure for him to join in a service expressive of the love, respect, admiration and honor in which President Harker is held in this his home community.

LEMONS BEAUTIFY

Strain lemon juice well before mixing and massage face, neck, arms, hands.

Here is told how to prepare an inexpensive lemon lotion which can be used to bring back to any skin the sweet freshness of which it has been robbed by trying atmospheric conditions. Wind-chill, roughness, tan and redness are washed off and those tell-tale lines of care or of age are softened away.

Two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart pint of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a quart of the ordinary cold cream. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so every drop gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothen and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons, pour the juice into a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily over your face, neck, arms and hands, and see for yourself—adv.

Praise Moves Dr. Harker.

Dr. Harker, who was in the audience, was called upon and spoke for a few moments with evident feeling. He declared that the reference made to his early life and his educational work in which he had engaged after coming to this country, had taken him back in memory many years; that he had lived over again the scenes of his childhood and young manhood as he had not done for many a day. He expressed the keenest appreciation of the honor paid him by the various speakers. He said that whatever of success had come to him was due in very large measure to the faithful, encouraging assistance given by Mrs. Harker. He said he was thankful to heaven first of all for his Christian parents, who the humble as to means, were God's noblemen. He was thankful secondly that he came from England to this country and then for the wife that was given to him as an aid in the work in after years. Dr. Harker declared too, that he counted himself most fortunate in having come to this city of Jacksonville, with its splendid religious and educational atmosphere and the people in it, who had so loyally supported him in his work through the years.

After the singing of a hymn by the audience Rev. Langton pronounced the benediction.

WITH THE SICK
Mrs. Bige Profit of northeast of the city, who underwent a serious operation at Our Saviors hospital last Tuesday, is getting along nicely. She expects to be able to return home within another week.

Dr. J. M. Neff, well known Chicago surgeon, came to Jacksonville yesterday for consulation in the case of A. J. Gebert, who has been ill for an extended period. The amputation of one leg was decided upon and Dr.
Neff assisted with the operation.
Last night Mr. Gebert's condition was accounted as satisfactory.

WINCHESTER

Winchester, June 3.—Four Scott county boys who left here May 27 for Camp Shelby, Hattiesburg, Miss., has returned, having been discharged from the southern camp on account of physical disability. The men returned being Earl Welch, Naples; Ray Wilcine, Madison, Ill.; Owen Stainsburg, Winchester; and John B. Kelly, Winchester.

Mrs. G. E. Prewitt and daughter Nylene arrived Sunday morning from Jacksonville to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Balsley.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred V. McLaughlin and daughter visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson near Manchester Sunday.

William Walls and daughters, with their guest, Mrs. Harry Willis, motored to Jacksonville Monday, Mrs.
Willis left there for Springfield for a short visit before returning to her home in Fairfield, Ill.

tending Millikan university, to spend the summer at her home here.
Leo Goylan of Beardstown visited relatives here Sunday.

JANE AND KATHERINE

LEE AT GRAND TODAY
Because of the insistent demand of exhibitors William Fox has decided to place his popular young stars, Jane and Katherine Lee, in Fox Special Feature series, "The Trouble Makers."

The film will be shown at the Grand today and Wednesday.
The Lees have greatly increased their popularity since they have been making Standard Pictures and the regular exhibitors and their patrons have insisted that Mr. Fox put the big Lee photoplays in the fifty-two year releases. Their new picture will be even more of a smash success than was "Two Little Limps."

PRESS CLUB STILL

UNDEFEATED TEAM
In a game marked by strong pitching the Press club defeated the North Side Merchants at State hospital grounds Monday evening by a score of 9 to 0. The Press team still has a clean record of victories. However, they play the Caps team next and studied the danger of having their slate broken. The score by innings:

I. W. C. BACCALAUREATE HELD AT CENTENARY

Impressive Service Took Place
Sunday Morning with Sermon
by Dr. Harker—Methodist Ministers Assisted with Service.

The annual baccalaureate service of Illinois Woman's college was held Sunday morning at Centenary church, where an interested audience gathered. Miss Larimore was at the organ and served as the accompanist for Mrs. Florence P.
Hartmann, who sang with fine effect, "Give Alms of Thy Goods."

Miss Clara C. Moore played the violin obligato. The audience joined in repeating the Apostles' Creed. Dr. F. B. Madden, Rev. W.
Theobald, Rev. W. R. Leslie and Rev. Mr. Weeden of the Indiana conference assisted in the service.

President Harker, departing somewhat from the usual custom, preached the baccalaureate sermon himself, using as his text, Philippians, 3-8: "The excellencies of the knowledge of Jesus Christ my Lord." It was a sermon which fully revealed the deep spiritual life of Dr. Harker and the great earnestness of his hope that the young women who attend the college may make religion the most important fact in their lives.

In the address to the graduating class Dr. Harker said:
"This is your chief yearning and anxiety for you; that you may know him in an intimate, vital, personal relationship and acquaintance. All your knowledge is changing and transient; it will vanish away. This knowledge is abiding and permanent.
Other forms of knowledge are of the problems about life, to know Christ is life itself.

You go out from college into your homes and your communities, and there, by your knowledge and acquired in college, we trust you will gladden and brighten every corner, making the hearts of your parents and friends happy, and securing for your communities a more sanitary, helpful and hopeful environment. But remember that you will do more for your communities as communities by taking Jesus Christ with you, representing Him, caring for His spirit, and His kingdom in the world.
Other necessary problems will solve themselves if, first, there is a personal acquaintance with Christ.

"I wish to add my personal testimony to that of Paul as to the outstanding need of you to have other forms of knowledge of a personal acquaintance with Jesus Christ. It was a great day for me, as it was for Paul, when Jesus Christ took hold of me. I can consciously connect all of life's greatest satisfactions, all of my best work, to that event. He has not yet known much of why he took hold of me. I know I have not been able to tell you all that he has made me a better man; has touched the strings of my life to sweeter music.
I have been able to tell you where else
I would have fainted; he has caused me to see visions of duty and of privilege. He has given me the power to something nearer the ideal he has himself inspired. It has been indeed a most priceless privilege to know him.

"Let him also 'take hold of you.'
Let him come into your lives as your master. Ask of him to take the direction of your lives. Let him purify your hearts. Let your prayer be, 'Thy will be done, O God, in me to do.' Let your lives henceforth be not yours, but Christ living in you, and you living in him. Let him take like him. Set his spirit and life before you as your ideal, so that, every day, you may be changed from one degree of likeness to another, until some blessed day you will be sweetness and light and beauty and strength wherever you go, then will you have the power to tell of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord.
Supreme Test.

"Christ Jesus my Lord." This is the ideal of your life. You may all join me in it. "The bondsman of Jesus Christ." Not vainly striving and longer distant to own, but to supply my own need. No, no, but leaving it all to him, trusting in him for guidance, for power, and for final victory, let us take him into the ship. Thank God for the priceless privilege of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord.

"My bark is wafted to the strand,
My breath divine,
And in his helm there rests a hand,
Other than mine.

One who was known in storms to sail,
I have on board;
Above the roaring of the gale,
I hear my Lord.

Safe to the land! Safe to the land!
The end is this;
And then with him go hand in hand,
Far into bliss."

TO MEET WEDNESDAY

A meeting of hotel, restaurant and boarding house keepers will be held Wednesday afternoon at day.

CHICAGO SURGEON
GUEST OF DR. NORRIS

Dr. J. M. Neff Gave Interesting Account of Surgical Work at Army Front.

Dr. J. M. Neff of Chicago was the honor guest at a dinner given Monday night at the Peacock Inn by Dr. F. A. Norris. The company present included more than twenty physicians, a number of nurses from Our Saviors hospital and from Passavant hospital. Following the dinner Dr. Neff spoke in an informal but most interesting way of his experiences in the war zone.

For nearly two years he was in the British medical service with the rank of colonel and was at the front. He was thus able to give facts of great interest to the physicians and nurses. He described minutely the first and second aid methods and then the work done at the field and base hospitals.

Dr. Neff also went into some details in the description of different kinds of wounds and explained the manner of treatment.

Altogether it was an address which gave a vivid picture of the war front and teemed with facts of special interest to physicians, nurses and Red Cross workers. Dr.
Neff, who ranks as one of the prominent physicians of Chicago, is on the staff of Mercy hospital and was for a number of years an assistant to Dr. Murphy.

Soldier Honored By

Ebenezer People.
Friday night, May 31st was the occasion of an unusually pleasant social event, given by members of the Young Men's Class of the Ebenezer S. S. at the home of Mrs. Emma Cully. The occasion was in honor of Phillip Stanley who has very recently enlisted in the U. S. cavalry.
James Martin, the teacher of the young men's class, and William Hadden, the assistant teacher, with their wives were included in the list of guests, who numbered about sixty.

During the evening the guests were divided into groups, each group writing a letter, or some sentiments, which were sealed and given to the guest of honor, to be read at such times in the future as were designated on the envelopes. Music throughout the evening by a number of guests was much enjoyed, and refreshments consisting of cake and ice cream were served. Before the guests departed, Mrs. William Hadden presented the guest of honor with a comfort kit, the gift of the "Gleaners" S. S. class of the Ebenezer S. S. Mr. Standley in well chosen words expressed his appreciation for the honor shown him, and when the good-by's were spoken, a spirit of cheer and good-will prevailed.

CITY EMPLOYEES GET
INCREASE IN PAY

Ten Dollars Per Month Added to Salaries of Men—This Action is Necessary to Keep Workers—Officers' Reports Presented.

Two sessions of the city council were held Monday, one at 10 a. m. and one at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The meeting at 10 a. m. was held particularly for the purpose of considering the request of employees of the water department for an increase in salary. It was decided after considerable discussion to raise the wages of all city employees $10 per month. An exception was made in the case of the superintendent of the light plant and the public engineer, who have already had increases, and in the case of City Clerk Pyatt the increase was $20. It was stated that Mr. Pyatt is doing the work of a city controller in addition to his duties of clerk and that his experience and the excellent manner in which he does the work both justify a higher salary than he will now receive.

The decision to increase salaries came as a result of an acute situation in the water and light departments, where the men made a written request for an increase in pay. The petition was for $15 a month and they subsequently agreed to accept the $10 raise. It was very evident to the city officials that if the money was not forthcoming that employees in the city water and light department would quit work and would probably be followed by other employees if the salary increase was not granted. The salary asked was not any larger than the men can secure in other lines of employment.

Hard Time To Meet Rate. As the matter was discussed in open council it developed that the mayor and commissioners were of one mind that the increased salary is deserved by all the men because of higher salaries paid in other lines, and furthermore, because of the increased cost of living. But they regretted very much that the salaries must be increased at this time when the city is having such a very difficult time to meet its ordinary obligations.

At the morning session a communication was read from the Cocking Cement company stating that question of oiling or sprinkling in the business district had been brought to their attention by a number of merchants. Mr. Cocking suggested that if the city would furnish the flusher, free water and pay $85 a month that he would furnish a team and two men to flush the streets, working from 12 o'clock at night until 8 a. m., six days in the week. The letter also stated that the company would oil the business district once a month for a period of several months at a cost to be paid entirely by the merchants. Mayor Rodgers said it was clearly out of the question to accept the first proposition and the communication was received and placed on file.

Mr. Vasconcellos stated that he had been in conference with Mr. Waddell and the program as proposed by a number of the merchants was to secure the city flusher and employ a man and team and to pay for water used at some reasonable rate. Mr. Cox said that he had offered to lend the merchants the flusher and said further that while there were some objections to oiling, that he would be willing to approve any plan that the management favored in view of the present difficult situation. He was in favor of oiling was done of having the oiling once a week done lightly, instead of heavy oiling once a month. Mr. Waddell, in discussing the salary increases, spoke of the need for local patriotism and hoped that some means may yet be found for carrying approved bills. If persons who have a little money to lend will simply co-operate in this work they will be assured of a safe investment and at the same time be of great service to the city.

Who Will Get the Interest. Mr. Martin said that one trouble about salary increase was the fact that some employees might thus be led to discount their warrants further and that in the end the employees would not gain but simply the persons who loaned the money. The view was expressed too by Mr. Cox and Mr. Martin that if someone were to bring suit on a claim against the city that judgment would be secured and then the entire amount would bear interest until paid. This would mean that persons not justly entitled to an extremely high rate of interest would receive it.

Officers' Reports. Officers' reports were received and approved as follows: John Press, sexton at Jacksonville cemetery, reported seventeen graves made during the month of May. Harry Summers, Sexton Diamond Grove cemetery, reported twenty graves made during the month.

The report of W. H. Cobb, water superintendent, showed the following collections: Rents, $2,681; meters sold, $25; taps, $27; repairs, $23; junk, $12.49; total, $2,888.49.

R. L. Pyatt, city clerk, reported the following collections: thru city office, $1,327; Diamond Grove cemetery, $319; Jacksonville cemetery, $112. The reason for the large receipts thru the clerk's office was the fact that Bernard Gause for the plumbers' board sent in a check for $1,091.

The report of C. B. Graff, city treasurer, showed a balance in the general fund May 31 of $4,573.15. Dr. A. M. King, health warden, reported 54 deaths during the month of this number 23 being at Jacksonville State Hospital. The deaths were as follows: Under one year, two; one to five years, four; five to twenty years, two; 20 to 50 years, seventeen; 50 to 70 years, eleven. Contagious diseases reported were: Measles, two; whooping cough, one; chicken pox three; mumps, two; smallpox, three; typhoid fever, one; tuberculosis, one.

REBEKAHS, NOTICE. Members of Jacksonville lodge No. 13 and Caritas No. 625 are requested to meet at I. O. O. F. Temple at 2:00 o'clock today, to attend funeral of the late Effie McCool.

Mrs. Minnie Sooy, N. G. Miss Effie Stewart, N. G.

WILL ATTEND ENCAMPMENT. Mrs. Susie Wright and Mrs. Anna Vieira expect to attend the State Encampment of the G. A. R. at Peoria June 5, 6 and 7. Mrs. Wright goes as delegate from the local corps.

ANNUAL CONCERT GIVEN AT COLLEGE OF MUSIC

Program of Great Excellence Given—Orchestra of Sixteen Pieces Played Accompaniments.

A large audience gathered at Music Hall, Illinois Woman's college last evening to hear the annual concert of the college of music. The program consisted of solos for organ, piano and voice and numbers for violin and voice with orchestral accompaniment. The orchestra of sixteen pieces, under direction of Mr. Stearns, gave a splendid account of itself in the accompaniments of the evening. The work of the young artists in their solos was uniformly of a high grade.

Special mention should be made of the work of Miss Bertha Walker in the Mendelssohn violin concerto, and of Miss Eunice Leonard in the aria from Les Huguenots, and Miss Margaret Scrimger in the dramatic aria, "Farewell Ye Hills" from Joan of Arc, by Tchaikowski. Miss Scrimger's voice is a warm soprano of extended range, good volume and very expressive quality. Miss Leonard's voice is a coloratura soprano of considerable flexibility.

Miss Edith Hilkey played brilliantly in her numbers for organ and also in her concerto for piano. Miss Lilla Skinner, Miss Winifred Sale and Mr. Willard Baptist all gave splendid account of themselves. The audience was enthusiastic in its appreciation and applauded liberally throughout the entire program.

The program was as follows:
PROGRAM
Priore a Notre Dame Toccata—Boellmann
From the Gothic Suite
Edith Hilkey
Nebels, Beigners—Meyerbeer

ALUMNI OF BLIND
IN BIENNIAL SESSION

Session Will Be Held Wednesday and Thursday—Members Present from All Parts of State—Much Good Accomplished by Association.

The alumni Association of the Illinois School for the Blind holds its fifteenth biennial convention on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Members of the Association from all parts of the State are coming in and a very pleasant and profitable meeting is anticipated. Supt. and Mrs. Woolston are doing everything possible to contribute to the pleasure and comfort of the visitors.

Pupils of the School for the Blind were first graduated in 1877 and the Alumni Association was formed ten years later. Since its foundation the Association has met biennially, with the exception of the year 1893 when the meeting was postponed because of the Columbian Exposition in Chicago. While the members thoroughly enjoy the social side of the conventions, they also take a very vital interest in matters pertaining to the general welfare of the blind people of the State.

The Trust Fund. At the 1912 meeting a resolution was adopted establishing a fund to be known as the Trust Fund, from which small loans are made to pupils leaving the School and other blind persons throughout the State to aid them in establishing themselves in some line of occupation or business. From the outset the undertaking has met with splendid success and a number of blind persons have been assisted in getting a start.

The money for the fund has been raised by subscriptions made principally by the members. At the meeting two years ago $125 was subscribed, and while it cannot be expected that as large an amount will be raised this time, still it is hoped that the fund will be increased considerably. Donations will be gladly received from any friends of the school.

The Association also has an Employment Committee, which assists blind persons in securing work and in disposing of goods made in their homes. This is also a very valuable feature of the Association and one in which the members take great interest.

Two Days' Business Session. Business sessions will be held on Wednesday and Thursday morning. Wednesday evening a concert will be given by some of the members and the convention will close with a banquet and dance on Thursday evening.

The present officers are: George W. Gerlach, President; Miss Francine Moon, Vice President; W. W. Rodenberg, Secretary; William Holmes, Treasurer.

Men's negligee shirts, faultless fitting, fast colors, are shown by FRANK BYRNS.

CITY EMPLOYEES GET INCREASE IN PAY

Two sessions of the city council were held Monday, one at 10 a. m. and one at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The meeting in the afternoon was held particularly for the purpose of considering the request of employees of the water department for an increase in salary. It was decided after considerable discussion to raise the wages of all city employees $10 per month. An exception was made in the case of the superintendent of the light plant and the public engineer, who have already had increases, and in the case of City Clerk Pyatt the increase was made $20. It was stated that Mr. Pyatt is doing the work of a city controller in addition to duties of clerk and that his experience and the excellent manner in which he does the work both justify a higher salary than he will now receive.

The decision to increase salaries came as a result of an acute situation in the water and light departments, where the men made a written request for an increase in pay. The petition was for $15 a month and they subsequently agreed to accept the $10 raise. It was very evident to the city officials that if the money was not forthcoming that employees in the city water and light department would quit work and would probably be followed by other employees if the salary increase was not granted. The salary asked was not any larger than the men can secure in other lines of employment.

Hard Time to Meet Raise.
As the matter was discussed in open council it developed that the mayor and commissioners were of one mind that the increased salary is deserved by all the men because of higher salaries paid in other lines, and furthermore, because of

Why Kidneys Kill

Because they are diseased. Two sound active kidneys are necessary for sound health. They must act as filters, cleansing the blood of the poisonous waste matters taken up in its course through the body.

When kidneys are sound and active they do their filtering work perfectly. When they are weak and diseased they fail to do their task, and the whole human body suffers from this poisonous blood.

POLEY KIDNEY PILLS are just what is needed to make over weak, ailing, aching kidneys into strong, healthy, active ones.

Start taking Poley Kidney Pills today and headache, backache, stiff swollen joints, dull weary headaches and tired-over feeling will quickly pass away. Regular action, clean blood, good health, bladder action, clean blood, good health, sound sleep, and no more dull weary pains or headaches, will be your sure reward.

Your druggist sells them. Remember the name Poley Kidney Pills. They are the best. J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store—adv.

The orchestra of sixteen pieces, under direction of Mr. Stearns, gave a splendid account of itself in the accompaniments of the evening. The work of the young artists in their solos was uniformly of a high grade.

Special mention should be made of the work of Miss Bertha Walker in the Mendelssohn violin concerto, and of Miss Eunice Leonard in the dramatic aria, "Farewell Ye Hills" from Joan of Arc, by Tchaikowski. Miss Leonard's voice is a warm soprano of extended range, good volume and very expressive quality. Miss Leonard's voice is a coloratura soprano of considerable flexibility. Miss Edith Hillier played brilliantly in her numbers for organ and also in her concerto for piano. Miss Lalla Skinner, Miss Winifred Sale and Mr. Willard Baptist all gave splendid account of themselves. The audience was enthusiastic in its appreciation and applauded liberally throughout the entire program.

The program was as follows:

ALUMNI OF BLIND IN BIENNIAL SESSION

Session Will Be Held Wednesday and Thursday—Members Present from All Parts of State—Much Good Accomplished by Association.

The alumni Association of the Illinois School for the Blind holds its fifteenth biennial convention on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Members of the Association from all parts of the State are coming in and a very pleasant and profitable meeting is anticipated. Supt. and Mrs. Woolstoy are doing everything possible to contribute to the pleasure and comfort of the visitors.

Pupils of the School for the Blind were first graduated in 1877 and the Alumni Association was formed ten years later. Since its foundation the Association has met biennially, with the exception of the year 1893 when the meeting was postponed because of the Columbian Exposition in Chicago. While the members thoroughly enjoy the social side of the conventions, they also take a very vital interest in matters pertaining to the general welfare of the blind people of the State.

The Trust Fund.

At the 1912 meeting a resolution was adopted establishing a fund to be known as the Trust Fund, from which small loans are made to pupils leaving the School and other blind persons throughout the State to aid them in establishing themselves in some line of occupation or business. From the outset the undertaking has met with splendid success and a number of blind persons have been assisted in getting a start.

The money for the fund has been raised by subscriptions made principally by the members. At the meeting two years ago $125 was subscribed, and while it cannot be expected that as large an amount will be raised this time, still it is hoped that the fund will be increased considerably. Donations will be gladly received from any friends of the school.

The Association also has an Employment Committee, which assists blind persons in securing work and in disposing of goods made in their homes. This is a very valuable feature of the Association and one in which the members take great interest.

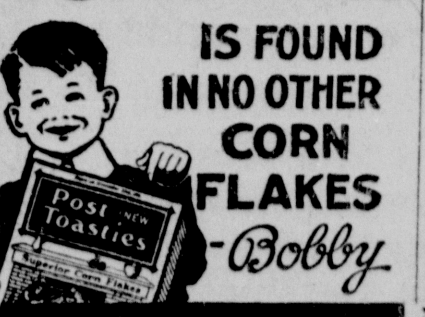

Business sessions will be held on Wednesday and Thursday morning. Wednesday evening a concert will be given by some of the members and the convention will close with a banquet and dance on Thursday evening.

The present officers are:

George W. Gerlach—President.
Miss Francis Moon—Vice President.
W. W. Rodenberg—Secretary.
William Holkes—Treasurer.

Men's negligee shirts, faultless fitting, fast colors, are shown by FRANK BYRNS.

Better than metal
Certain-teed is fast taking the place of metal roofs, not only because of the scarcity and high cost of metal, but because Certain-teed
Roofing
is superior in every important roofing quality. Metal easily rusts and disintegrates from atmospheric gases. Certain-teed cannot rust and its asphalt base makes it practically immune to any form of corrosion. Metal absorbs heat and transmits it to the interior of a building. Certain-teed insulates against heat and cold, and makes the building cooler in summer and warmer in winter. Metal must be painted frequently. Certain-teed gives years of weather-proof service practically without any upkeep expense. Metal is noisy in wind or storm. Certain-teed fully deadens sound from such sources. Metal is not safely guaranteed. Certain-teed is absolutely guaranteed 5, 10 or 15 years, according to thickness, and actually gives longer service than its guarantee. Metal is a direct drain on military materials. Certain-teed is made principally of waste rags and asphalt—materials which have no military use whatever. Certain-teed has proved its efficiency and economy for every kind of roofing service—factories, warehouses, hotels, stores, farm buildings, outbuildings, etc. Certain-teed is more economical and more efficient in service than metal or any other type of roof. Certain-teed is the best quality of roll roofing—it costs no more to lay than ordinary roll roofing and lasts much longer. Sold by dealers everywhere.

Mrs. CHAPIN SAYS
Nujol Laboratories,
Standard Oil Company, (New Jersey)
Bayonne, New Jersey.
October 14, 1917.
Dear Sir:
I don't think there was ever anybody, man, woman or child who was or is more constipated than my little three year old boy was. Why sir, he was so bad before we got him the Nujol that we would have to leave his bowels unmoved for three or four days, then use almost a quart of water in a syringe to move them. The poor little fellow would almost go into spasms and his father could never stay in the room where he was. It would take almost an hour's work to get them to move.
He had been constipated for two years. I think these patent medicines did it. I have known the doctor to be here and give him five tablepoons of castor oil, one every half hour to get his bowels to move.
We tried four different doctors, one a well known specialist, but none could help him. Three advised operations, said it was the only cure. I have always had a horror of operations and I guess always will.
We were going to try a well known woman doctor who claims she cures without an operation, when I coaxed my husband to let me try Nujol. I had read so much about it, I told him even if it didn't help him it would not hurt. We tried it, started giving him three tablepoons a day, one after each meal, then as his bowels moved better we decreased the dose as per directions. We used two bottles and a half and we cured him.
How thankful we were. Tears come to my eyes, even now, when I think of how that poor little fellow suffered. Just think—a little tot, hardly able to talk plainly.
He has not taken a drop of it since last June. I have wanted to write before, but kept neglecting it till I thought perhaps my letter would relieve lots and lots of other people. Again I say, God Bless Nujol, and I will never be without it or cease to recommend it. From a mother whose heart will always be thankful for your great remedy for constipation.

Miss June Frey New Full Flagged Nurse—Branch of Woman's Council National Defense Organized in Naples—Other News of Interest.

Naples, June 3.—Miss June Frey has finished her course in nurse work in Chicago with splendid markings and is now ready for service, and over-seas if necessary. She is taking a short vacation visit with her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frey.

The wheat, oats, rye and corn crop look mighty fine in this vicinity and promises large return in the gathering.

The Naples precinct in the Red Cross drive went over its apportionment of $500.00 to the amount of $131.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Mayes east of town entertained Rev. and Mrs. Haas at a six o'clock dinner Friday evening. The cuisine effort of the hostess, was excellent and relishable.

A branch of the Woman's Defense was organized here this week, the ladies meeting with Mrs. Merton Abbott who acts as general chairwoman.

Mrs. George E. Haas was made chairwoman of the finance committee. Nine other chairwomen were appointed for the different departments.

Quiet a number of our people via train and auto witnessed the Decoration Day parade in Jacksonville and were amply repaid for the trip for the presentation made was most excellent.

Mrs. Arthur Albers spent a day in Jacksonville this week.

Mrs. Scott of Meredosia, who has been with her daughter Rula Albers for some time returned home Thursday.

Rev. and Mrs. Haas were the guests of Will Gregory and mother at a Sunday luncheon dinner. In the afternoon Will motored the couple accompanied by Miss Norma Abrams to their appointment at Osville.

Four more Naples boys, Lee Green, Earl and William Welch and Leonard Six, left for a southern training camp the first of the week. A farewell party was given them in the hall. Quite a number of our citizens motored to Winchester to see them off along with the other boys from Scott county who were in this call.

J. M. Ritter and wife, Mrs. Jennie Hatfield and daughter Francis, Rev. and Mrs. Haas, were guests one day this week at the home of Carl Ritter in Bluff, his sister Mrs. John Fine being hostess. The dinner was a most delectable repast.

Ernest Gregory and wife of Jacksonville, were here this week on a visit to their parents.

Better than metal

Certain-teed is fast taking the place of metal roofs, not only because of the scarcity and high cost of metal, but because

is superior in every important roofing quality. Metal easily rusts and disintegrates from atmospheric gases. Certain-teed cannot rust and its asphalt base makes it practically immune to any form of corrosion. Metal absorbs heat and transmits it to the interior of a building. Certain-teed insulates against heat and cold, and makes the building cooler in summer and warmer in winter. Metal must be painted frequently. Certain-teed gives years of weather-proof service practically without any upkeep expense. Metal is noisy in wind or storm. Certain-teed fully deadens sound from such sources. Metal is not safely guaranteed. Certain-teed is absolutely guaranteed 5, 10 or 15 years, according to thickness, and actually gives longer service than its guarantee. Metal is a direct drain on military materials. Certain-teed is made principally of waste rags and asphalt—materials which have no military use whatever. Certain-teed has proved its efficiency and economy for every kind of roofing service—factories, warehouses, hotels, stores, farm buildings, outbuildings, etc. Certain-teed is more economical and more efficient in service than metal or any other type of roof. Certain-teed is the best quality of roll roofing—it costs no more to lay than ordinary roll roofing and lasts much longer. Sold by dealers everywhere.

Mrs. CHAPIN SAYS

Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Company, (New Jersey) Bayonne, New Jersey. October 14, 1917.

Dear Sirs:

I don't think there was ever anybody, man, woman or child who was or is more constipated than my little three year old boy. Why sir, he was so bad before we got him the Nujol that we would have to let me have his bowels unmoved for three or four days, then use almost a quart of water in a syringe to move them. The poor little fellow would almost go into spasms and his father could never stay in the room where he was. It would take almost an hour's work to get them to move.

He had been constipated for two years. I think these patent medicines did it. I have known the doctor to be here and give him five tablespoons of castor oil, one every half hour to get his bowels to move.

We tried four different doctors, one a well known specialist, but none could help him. Three advised operations, said it was the only cure. I have always had a horror of operations and I guess always will.

We were going to try a well known woman doctor who claims she cures without an operation, when I coaxed my husband to let me try Nujol. I had read so much about it, I told him even if it didn't help him it would not hurt. We tried it, started giving him three tablepoonfuls a day, one after each meal, then as his bowels moved better we decreased the dose as per directions. We used two bottles and a half and we cured him.

How thankful we were. Tears come to my eyes, even now, when I think of how that poor little fellow suffered. Just think—a little tot, hardly able to talk plainly.

He has not taken a drop of it since last June. I have wanted to write before, but kept neglecting it till I thought perhaps my letter would relieve lots and lots of other people. Again I say, God Bless Nujol, and I will never be without it or cease to recommend it. From a mother whose heart will always be thankful for your great remedy for constipation.

Dayton, Ohio, 403 Kiefaker St., Mrs. J. Chapin.

Nujol will help your child. It's absolutely harmless. Try it.

FROM THE COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE.

Standard Illinois Rotation.

A. M. Masters showed the county agent over his farm northeast of Murrayville last Friday. This farm has several features that the county agents in the state of Illinois hope to see put into practice by the farmers of the state. The standard Illinois rotation of corn, oats with clover seedling, clover and wheat is followed when possible. Then there is the additional field for alfalfa recommended for the man that has livestock.

In carrying out the above rotation clover is turned under and seeded to wheat. There is a fifty-two acre field of wheat on this farm, which was seeded where a very heavy crop of clover was turned under. Previous to the plowing 65 tons of rock phosphate were applied to the clover. At present that field of wheat is a sight worth going a long way to see.

Alfalfa. There are thirty-six acres of alfalfa. One portion of this has been running for eight years and is still a profitable field. Another has been in use five years and is at its best. Still another portion was seeded late last summer and will yield a profitable cutting this season. These alfalfa fields have received liberal applications of both ground limestone and rock phosphate. Mr. Masters has solved the problem of raising alfalfa, and thinks it is a solution of many of the feeding problems on the farm.

Management of Hogs. In addition to the grain side of this farming there are some well arranged hog lots with suitable forage crops, running water, self feeders, and well made individual hog houses. These lots differ from a great many in having floors and being liberally supplied with clean bedding. The spring farrowed gilts, intended for breeding, have already been separated from the rest of the spring pigs and are being fed somewhat differently. Altho Mr. Masters makes no claims for unqualified success, along the lines indicated, he is evidently doing things about right.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Presentation of Service Flag by S. S. Class—Number of Addresses Given.

The First Baptist church service Sunday evening were distinctly patriotic, consisting of a flag presentation by the Amoma Bible class, addresses by union and confederate soldiers and a stirring address by the pastor.

The members of Matt Starr Post G. A. R. and Women's Relief Corps were guests of honor and occupied seats reserved for them. The church was suitably decorated with flags and patriotic emblems and all breathed a spirit of loyalty. "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" was sung and after prayer Miss Jennie Rabjohns, on behalf of the Amoma Bible class, presented the church with a service flag with 36 stars indicative of the number of young men from the church and congregation now in active service. She said in brief:

"We are not able to go to the front but we do desire to do all in our power for the great cause. We have spared 26 young men to go to save their country and our prayer is that they may be spared to return to us with honor and unblemished record. The colors in the service flag are well chosen; the red typifies the devotion, enthusiasm and zeal of the faithful defenders of our country. We love to look at Old Glory and the service flag which tells such a grand story and may we ever be inspired to unfaltering devotion to our country and our Maker."

On behalf of the church Deacon Jerry Cox responded. "Words fail to express the emotions I feel at the present time. I look on this flag as a message of love and devotion from those who gave it; a sentiment which will inspire them and us to nobler and better deeds. Although a small boy I will remember when the gray haired veterans before me went out to fight for their country and I will know the worth of the services they rendered. The 26 boys represented by the stars on this service flag will do their duty too and their conduct will add new honor to the country from which they have gone. May they ever be true and fearless; show that the church from which they have gone and the community have done grandly in furnishing such men for the service of their country."

Dr. Koppert was then asked to come forward and call each name on the service roll and then any member of the family present was asked to rise and Miss Rabjohns presented them with a lovely carnation as a token of love and esteem from the church.

Rev. A. A. Todd, D. D., said that he was glad to have present representative of both armies in the civil war and he requested Thomas A. Rice, veteran of the Confederate Army and S. W. Nichols, of the Union army to stand one on each side of him and speak for their respective sides. Dr. Rice told in thrilling terms of the last days of the Confederacy. He was in the battle of Appomattox when starvation and battle wore the portion of his command. His immediate company happened to occupy a sunken place in the field. Those in front and those behind fell and then it was well indeed.

Ammunition gave out; some couldn't use bayonets and guns were clubbed. All knew the result; the tragical and though his cause lost he said he was glad of it for it was no doubt far better for the country and now he was a full blooded, loyal American citizen devoted soul and body to the flag.

S. W. Nichols spoke for the Union side and said the shot fired at Fort Sumpter was heard around the world and roused patriots all over the north to flock to the standard of the union and bury forever the doctrine of states' rights and human slavery. The rank and file of the Confederate army were patriotic and loyal and fully honest in what they did; he wouldn't speak of the leaders. It was brother against brother and now all were united and one, heart and soul for the flag and in token of his feeling he clasped the hand of Mr. Rice and while two ladies of the relief corps waved Old Glory over the two grey heads the audience sang "America" with a will. It was an impressive ceremony.

The pastor, Rev. A. A. Todd, D. D., then followed with a powerful discourse of which only a very few extracts are possible. He said in brief: This is essentially a war for humanity; of freedom and democracy against autocracy. The German government has placed itself outside the pale of civilization. The emperor has given orders to imitate the Huns of Attila. His forces have bombed hospitals killing nurses and wounded men and his barbarities have no equal in the annals of war. Neither infancy nor old age have been respected; pure women have been ravished; his soldiers have been assured that in the day of judgment no questions will be asked.

The forces of the Y. M. C. A., the Red Cross, the Salvation Army, the Knights of Columbus, all army watchmen on the wall; they will go over the top and stay over and march with the gallant soldiers through the streets of Berlin and peace and good will, freedom and democracy, will triumph all over the new world.

Another stirring song followed and after the benediction the members of Matt Starr Post and Relief Corps filed out each cordially shaking Mr. Rice's hand.

POLICE NEWS.

John Sallee is in jail and O. T. Marshall is in Passavant hospital as the result of an altercation which took place Sunday afternoon during which Sallee struck Marshall over the head with a board. Sallee was arrested on a warrant sworn out before Justice Dyer on the charge of assault and battery and in default of bond in the sum of $100 was set to jail. Dr. W. H. Weirich who attended Marshall said Monday that nothing serious would result from Marshall's injuries.

Two brothers named Lewis engaged in an altercation Sunday while it is said they were under the influence of liquor. One of the brothers grabbed a shotgun and pointed and pulled the trigger. Fortunately only one or two shot found their mark. The men were arrested and taken to the police station where they kissed and made up.

MISS M'COOL DIED IN THIS CITY SUNDAY

Former Resident of Jacksonville Passed Away After Continued Illness—A Useful Life.

The death of Miss Effie McCool occurred at Norbury Sanatorium at 8:30 Sunday night where she was removed several days since following a serious surgical operation. Miss McCool was born in this city and spent the greater part of her life here, altho for the past seven years she was a resident of Springfield. The deceased was the youngest daughter of W. P. and Amanda S. McCool (the father having passed away a number of years since). After attending the public schools in Jacksonville Miss McCool engaged in a business life and her first position was in the music store of Chas. & Phillips. Subsequently she engaged in insurance work, being successively in the office of C. H. Ward, Greenleaf, Rutledge & Gates, and the Clover Leaf Co. Her position with the last named company was resigned in order to take a desk at the Jacksonville National bank. After a year of service there Miss McCool became a bookkeeper for the Ridgely National bank in Springfield. From year to year the responsibilities there were increased and she was accounted as one of the most competent and valued workers in that well known institution.

During her residence in Jacksonville the deceased was an active member of Centenary M. E. church and after her removal to Springfield her membership was transferred to the First M. E. church in that city. She was also a member of Lilla Rebekah lodge No. 63 of Springfield and had served as musician for the organization. Nearly twenty years ago Miss McCool was troubled with a throat affection which necessitated an operation. There was a recurrence of the trouble and after consultation with a number of physicians she went to the Mayo hospital at Rochester, Minn., for another operation. This gave complete relief for a period but the growth again appeared and necessitated further hospital attention. So she underwent a series of operations and her constitution was not strong enough to withstand the most recent one. A general collapse followed shortly afterward and, as indicated, she was taken to the Norbury sanatorium. Those who knew Miss McCool well were best able to appreciate the noble self sacrifice that dominated her life. Hers has been a life of service for others and she valued her earning power in the business world only because of the ability it gave her to aid and care for others. For many years she was the mainstay of the home and no daughter ever gave more of loving care and attention to her parents and other members of the family. Miss McCool has indeed lived earnestly and well and certainly the reward will be hers which comes to those who earn their ideals in this world and follow them with earnestness and sincerity.

The deceased is survived by her mother, Mrs. Amanda McCool of Springfield; two sisters and three brothers: Miss Mary McCool, of Springfield; Mrs. Emma Calkin, Champaign; Charles McCool, Kansas City; John W. McCool, Leavenworth, Kans.; and Elmer McCool, Springfield. The funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Centenary church.

Friends who wish to view the remains may call at the Reynolds undertaking room at any time until 12 o'clock noon.

MEMORIAL SERVICES
HELD AT ARCADIA

Arcadia Lodge of Odd Fellows Held Services Sunday—Main Address by O. E. Tandy.

Sunday Arcadia Lodge of Odd Fellows held memorial services in Arcadia church. The lodge is one of the oldest in the state and 24 members of the order are buried in the cemetery adjacent to the church. The members met at the hall Sunday afternoon and marched in a body to the church where the exercises were held. J. J. Clark presided. A number of young people from Litterberry gave a selection and excellent music was furnished by the choir of the church.

Orie E. Tandy of this city gave the principal address of the afternoon. Mr. Tandy is thoroughly conversant with Odd fellowship in all its phases and his address was one of high merit and heard with close attention by the audience. At the close of the address the audience went to the cemetery, where the graves of departed brothers were decorated with flowers.

Among those in attendance from Jacksonville were J. T. Osborne, James Roberts, Wallace Hoelscher, John K. Long, T. M. Tomlinson and O. E. Tandy.

NOTICE TO LOAFERS

On and after June 1, according to instructions from the federal authorities, all loafers and idlers who are able-bodied will be picked up and turned over to the government. Able-bodied men without occupation or visible means of support will take note and govern themselves accordingly.

MISS M'COOL DIED IN THIS CITY SUNDAY

Former Resident of Jacksonville Passed Away After Continued Illness—A Useful Life.

The death of Miss Effie McCool occurred at Norbury Sanatorium at 8:30 Sunday night where she was removed several days since following a serious surgical operation. Miss McCool was born in this city and spent the greater part of her life here, altho for the past seven years she was a resident of Springfield. The deceased was the youngest daughter of W.
